150 Works on Paper Benefit

Over 150 artworks donated in support of our 13th annual Benefit

Event: Saturday, May 16, 6:00 PM (ticket holders only)

Exhibition on View to the Public: April 10 – May 10, 2015

Kentler International Drawing Space is proud to present its 13th annual 150 Works on Paper Benefit exhibition, featuring donated artworks by 155 local, national and international artists. This stunning selection of small works highlights the richness, diversity and innovation found in the field of drawing today. The exhibition and accompanying silent auction pieces are open for viewing by the public for one month prior to the ticketed event. On the evening May 16th, each ticketholder is invited to choose one work from the 150 Works on Paper to add to his or her collection.

Our special silent auction showcases original works by Ron Gorchov, Alexander Gorlizki, Lyman Kipp, Yasu Shibata, Stephen Westfall and Dustin Yellin. Artist Carol Bove is generously donating the proceeds from a sale of her work in support of the Benefit. The “Found in Red Hook” silent auction features unique items and gift certificates from local artisans and businesses. Bidding on the silent auction has already begun online and ends at 8:30 pm on the night of the event.

Our 13th annual Benefit celebrates 25 years in Red Hook. Funds raised will help support our public programming through 2015, including Exhibitions, K.I.D.S. Art Education and the Kentler Flatfiles. Tickets are on sale now for $250 per person / $300 per couple. To purchase tickets and for more information, visit www.kentlergallery.org.

Gallery Hours: Open free to the public, Thursday – Sunday, 12:00 – 5:00pm

Kentler International Drawing Space is located at 353 Van Brunt Street, Red Hook, Brooklyn. For more information contact Florence Neal, 718.875.2098.
