The Kentler International Drawing Space Inc. is 501 (c)(3) non-profit gallery, presenting exhibitions by artists, nationally and internationally as part of the cultural fabric of the community. The gallery encourages artists to explore, experiment and expand the definitions of Drawing and Work on Paper. The gallery was founded by artists in 1990.

Exhibitions are sponsored, in part, with public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs. Other sponsors include: The JPMorgan Chase Regrant of the Brooklyn Arts Council, Inc., which is made possible with public funds from the New York State Council of the Arts; Independence Community Foundation, Materials for the Arts, NYC Department of Cultural Affairs/NYC Dept. of Sanitation, and other valued friends and supporters of the gallery.
